RETIRED & SENIOR VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

United Way of Cascade County

United Way RSVP volunteers are critical to many community efforts in Cascade County. Their dedication has tremendous impact:

- ◆ Hundreds of homebound seniors receive hot meals and food boxes.
- ◆ Families in need have a safe place to sleep and food to eat.
- ◆ School-aged children get extra help with math and reading skills.
- ◆ Veterans are connected to vital community resources.
- ◆ First-graders receive one-on-one after school reading help.
- ◆ Volunteers brighten the lives of others and make our communities better places to live.

JOIN US. GET INVOLVED TODAY.

You can get involved in your community, and the United Way RSVP staff will make it easy, finding volunteer opportunities that meet your schedule and fits your interests and talents. You can learn more about volunteer opportunities through a bi-monthly newsletter and regular eblasts. RSVP volunteers are 55 or older and get the benefit of supplemental insurance while volunteering and are guests at our annual Volunteer Recognition Luncheon.

To learn more about United Way RSVP and available volunteer opportunities, call Lynette or Jessica at 727-3400, or email us at volunteer@uwccmt.org.

Visit our website www.rsvp-uwcc.org/ and find us on Facebook @RSVPUWCC and Twitter @RSVP_UWCC.
